If advance preparation is any indication of quality, the 1966-67 school year should be a successful one for Elco students.

Included in the success should be the yearbook. The staff includes: Suzanne Berger, Arlene Herr, Eileen Herr, Sandra Daniels, Pamela Barry, Keith Lyum, Sylvia Moore, Janice Nelson, Susan Meck, Georgene Miley, Deborah Miller, Kathryn Poffley, Randolph Klopp, Delroy Seldomridge, Richard Spittler, Thomas Seubert.

Also: Eileen Shirk, Janie Schaeffer, Carolyn Sebastian, Maryann Shelhamer, Stephanie Warluff, Gary Wells, Susan Kohl, Doreen Koller, James Troutman, Cynthia Kale, Rohorst, Ray Horst, Kathleen Hickernell and Susan Evans.

Editors and staff chairmen will be chosen at a later date.

Mr. Harold Donley will serve as the advisor.

The newly-elected Library Club officers are: senior high club — James Troutman, president; Brent Hippert, vice president; Gloria Haldeman, secretary; Carol Beamesderfer, treasurer; junior high club — Chere Wise, president; Brian Zeller, vice president; Raymond Putt, secretary and Robert Anspach, treasurer.

Mr. Larry Deiter is the advisor to the two clubs.

The clanging horns and waving banners which launched last week's campaign for Student Council president proclaimed a new record Friday as the ballots were counted.

For the first time in Elco's history, a junior-to-be, Charles Berger Jr., was awarded the coveted title.

The corridors will be filled with a little bit of Norway next year as Elco once again serves as host to a foreign exchange student.

Miss Nana Du, a 19-year-old Norwegian, who has studied English for six years, will reside with the Rev. and Mrs. John A. Rodgers of Newmantown.

There is no better way for FNA Club members to celebrate May 13, National Future Nurses' Day, than by visiting a hospital and the environment in which nurses live and work.

The Elco FNA Club members did just that. Accompanied by Mrs. Robert Kercher, school nurse, the following girls attended the second annual Future Nurse Club Health Seminar at the Lancaster General Hospital today: Suzanne Berger, Rhoda Keller, Lynda Bachman, Linda Brogan, Alberta Kissinger, Sharon Carpenter, Marjorie Hottenstein, Kathy Hickernell, Lind May, Georgene Miley and Betty Kupp.

One of the most memorable and enjoyable steps on the road to graduation was taken by the senior class today — the annual class trip. Washington, D. C., and its many and varied tourist attractions was the destination. Chaperones for the event were: Mr. John English, Mr. Ronald Graybill, Mr. Warren Zimmerman, Mrs. Lena Saunders, Miss Darlene Miller and Miss Lucy Bamberger.
